Welcome

We hope everyone had a great Spring Break! A reminder that the department will send this roundup of important events, deadlines and updates every other Tuesday, making it easier to stay informed and connected.

Congratulations to all our all seniors who have completed their senior thesis and design thesis projects! Design thesis projects will be presented at a Gallery Style Review this Friday. Please drop by Gund Hall, room 109, at any point between 10 AM – 12 PM on this day to see the wonderful work completed by our design thesis students!

This year's Henri Zerner Lecture is next Wednesday. HAA students also have an exciting opportunity to join Christiane Baumgartner for an intimate seminar dedicated to the Harvard Art Museum's collection of her work. Find more details on how to sign up for this below!

Finally, a reminder that the department is on Instagram (@harvardhaa). Please follow us for another way to stay engaged in the wider HAA community!

HAA Futures: Undergraduate Alumni Conversations

Thursday, April 14, 5:30 PM EST

Register here.

You are all warmly invited to attend the first of a new series of workshops hosted by the department: "HAA Futures: Undergraduate Alumni Conversations." This series will provide HAA undergraduates with the opportunity to learn from the experiences of our alumni. Learn more about the career paths, opportunities, challenges and choices made by HAA alumni as they navigated their post-graduate careers. The first in this series will be with Dr. Tina Rivers Ryan, a curator, art historian, and critic whose work focuses on the uses of new media technologies in art since the 1960s. Tina serves as Artforum's main critic of digital art and has authored two of the most influential essays on NFTs to date.
