

View as PDF

---

Congratulations Graduates!

On behalf of all of the members of the HAA department, I want to offer the heartiest congratulations to our graduating concentrators! You have enriched us with your ideas and your enthusiasms in the classroom. And you have inspired us with your tenacity and creativity as you have navigated the disruptions of the past few years. We are grateful that each of you found your way to the department. You are always welcome here at 485 Broadway, and we look forward to keeping in touch with you as HAA alumni!

*Jennifer L. Roberts
Director of Undergraduate Studies*

Congratulations to:

- Nuri Bhuiyan
- Alexis Boo
- Mark Chearavanont
- Kelsey Chen (Joint with Social Studies)
- Paige Coolidge
- George Cozens
- Sinead Danagher
- Paola Foster
- Andrew Haimovici
- Lucy Hamilton
- Sean Hayes
- Maeve Miller (Joint with Art, Film, and Visual Studies)
- Hannah Moataz

- Babi Oloko (Joint with History and Literature)
- Katherine Rauner
- Amanda Stetz (Joint with Computer Science)
- Paul Tamburro (Joint with Anthropology)
- Mikki Thompson
- Ingrid Wall
- Lillian Whitman
- Wendy Wu (Joint with Environmental Science and Engineering)
- Wendy Yu
- Jingyi Xu

Going forward:

Nuri Bhuiyan will be working at The Creative, a design consultancy in New York, assisting with creative visioning and brand strategy for a variety of projects. George Cozens will be working as a graduate intern in the Post War and Contemporary Department at Christie's in London. Sean Hayes will be attending Cambridge University, undertaking an M. Phil. in Architecture and Urban Studies. Wendy Wu and Wendy Yu will be undertaking post-graduate degrees at the GSD. Jingyi Xu will be attending the University of Pennsylvania Law School as a J.D. candidate. Kelsey Chen will be undertaking a Ph.D. in Modern Thought & Literature at Stanford. Paul Tamburro will be travelling to Turkey this summer to work with the Archaeological Exploration of Sardis. From there, he will travel to Mexico City as a recipient of the Michael C. Rockefeller Memorial Fellowship to study and make cartonería (papier-mâché) with local artisans.

Please send any and all future updates to marcus\_mayo@fas.harvard.edu!

---

HAA Prize Winners

Congratulations to this year's HAA prize winners (from left to right):

- Abramson Prize: Paul Tamburro, for his senior thesis Orality and the Maya "Scribe": Reading Reading Back into the Picture.
  - o The Matthew Abramson '96 Prize is awarded by faculty vote to the one student of this department whose thesis has been determined as "Best Senior Thesis."
- Ackerman Prize: Wendy Yu, for her senior thesis Toilet Tales: Decoding and Encoding Social Scripts Within the Public Restroom.
  - o The James Sloss Ackerman Senior Thesis Prize in Architecture is awarded, by faculty vote, to a senior thesis of the highest merit on a topic in the history, theory, and/or design of architecture.
- Fairman Prize: Kelsey Chen, for her senior thesis Things Adrift: A Vital Materialist Account of Trinh Mai's Bone of My Bone as Feminist Refuge-Making Craft.
  - o The Claire Fairman Prize is awarded to that thesis which is found, by faculty vote, to be most worthy, and of a topic focusing on modern art.

---

Senior Thesis Posters

This year, our senior thesis and design thesis writers were asked to create posters which summarized their projects. These are on display in the 4th floor study space, opposite room 427. Please do stop by to learn about and celebrate their work!

---

Stay in Touch

Please do keep in touch! If you have not already done so, feel free to provide Marcus with your non-Harvard email address so that we can keep in contact. You can also join our alumni mailing list on the HAA Alumni page. We would love to hear from you with updates as your careers progress.

Please do continue to follow us on Instagram \(@harvardhaa\). If you would like to continue receiving these newsletters, please contact Marcus. Finally, please know that you are more than welcome to attend any future HAA events either online in person.

Once again, congratulations on your achievements, and all the best on your future endeavors!