

HAA Undergrad Bi-Weekly Update

View as PDF

Welcome

A reminder that the HAA curriculum for next year is now available to view on the HAA website! This is still subject to change, so please make sure to confirm details in my.harvard once the catalog goes live on the 27th. Two changes of note: Professor Carrie Lambert-Beatty will be offering "HAA 17K – Introduction to Contemporary Art" in the fall; the location of next year's sophomore excursion course has changed to Munich.

Pre-registration is less than a month away! All rising seniors are expected to have one advising meeting before their advising hold is removed. For all other concentrators, you are still highly encouraged to meet and discuss your plans. Professor Roberts is available to meet on April 1, 9, and 11, between 3 – 5pm. You can schedule a meeting here. You can also schedule to meet with Marcus at any point using this link.

On Friday, March 29, between 10:30 am and 12:30 pm, we will be hosting our annual Design Thesis Gallery Review in Gund Hall, Room 121. Come support our seniors and learn more about their work! For those interested in undertaking a design thesis in their senior year, this event is a must!

The Harvard Undergraduate Art Journal is now accepting art and art history submissions for its inaugural print and digital issue this spring! Further details are below.

We are looking for concentrators to contribute to the department's Instagram channel (@harvardhaa). If you're interested in being featured, please reach out to JM Gomez, HAA's website and social media expert.

HUAJ

Harvard Undergraduate Art Journal

The Harvard Undergraduate Art Journal is now accepting art and art history submissions for its inaugural print and digital issue this spring! See below for submission guidelines:

Essays: Undergraduate essays eligible for submission are previously unpublished English-language essays in art history of 2,000 - 5,000 words in length. All submissions should be formatted in Chicago style with a maximum of 10 .jpeg images per essay. Please additionally include a brief abstract of the submitted paper of no more than 400 words in length. All submissions to be in .docx format.

Artwork: All photographable mediums of creative work will be considered for publication (painting, photography, digital art, drawing, sculpture, etc.). Please submit a photograph of your submission as a high-resolution .jpg image with the title of the work as the file name, along with an artist statement/description of the work of no more than 500 words in length. All written components to be in .docx format.

Please send all submissions (or questions) via email to harvardcollegeartjournal@gmail.com by Friday, April 5th. Upon acceptance of your submission, our editors will be in touch with feedback and revision suggestions prior to publication.

HUAHS

If you are interested in joining the Harvard Undergraduate Art History Society, sign up for its email list here.
