HUAJ

Harvard Undergraduate Art Journal

The Harvard Undergraduate Art Journal is now accepting art and art history submissions for its inaugural print and digital issue this spring! See below for submission guidelines:

Essays: Undergraduate essays eligible for submission are previously unpublished English-language essays in art history of 2,000 - 5,000 words in length. All submissions should be formatted in Chicago style with a maximum of 10 .jpeg images per essay. Please additionally include a brief abstract of the submitted paper of no more than 400 words in length. All submissions to be in .docx format.

Artwork: All photographable mediums of creative work will be considered for publication (painting, photography, digital art, drawing, sculpture, etc.). Please submit a photograph of your submission as a high-resolution .jpg image with the title of the work as the file name, along with an artist statement/description of the work of no more than 500 words in length. All written components to be in .docx format.

Please send all submissions (or questions) via email to harvardcollegeartjournal@gmail.com by Friday, April 5th. Upon acceptance of your submission, our editors will be in touch with feedback and revision suggestions prior to publication.

HUAHS

If you are interested in joining the Harvard Undergraduate Art History Society, sign up for its email list here. HUAHS is a student organization that schedules art discussions, free museum tours, and art-related outings throughout the semester. The Society has no comp and is open to all years and concentrations. You can also keep up to date with HUAHS through its Instagram page, @harvardarthistorysociety.
